CHIEF SECRETARIAT. IV MINOR Depts. 8 DEC 1920

Geol 40-20-57

I write to intimate to you that the temporary Peons and Lascars employed as per my D.O. letter No.977 of yesterday has been disbanded from this the 4th December 1920, as in the course of the personal conversation I had with you in the matter you gave me to understand that the Government are not disposed to sanction the continuance of the staff.

The pay of the staff for the months of October and November 1920 has been provisionally disbursed out of our contingent money and as the latter has to be recouped immediately to meet the needs of the several touring officers who are leaving for camp next week, I shall be greatly obliged if Government will kindly issue orders authorising the disbursement of the pay of the temporary staff of 5 Peons and 5 Lascars from 1st October 1920 to

4th
